Memo for Mr. Tamm

In keeping with your suggestion I called Mr. Foard of the Miami Office at 10:00 this morning re the investigation of the Jury Panel in the Adams - Randall matter. He stated that he investigated one previous matter of this kind, and is familiar with the routine which is followed. I told him that the Bureau is particularly desirous of pointing out the necessity of refraining from interviewing the prospective jurors under any circumstances. I also told him that the usual investigation is to consult the records of credit agencies, and other similar sources of information to determine the character, reputation, credit rating, employment etc of the prospective juror. He said that this would be followed out very cautiously.

MEMORANDUM

There is being set forth below a chronological summary of events relating to the harboring of Alvin Karpis by Joseph E. Adams and Henry Duke Randall. The page number which will appear below the date noted in each instance pertains to the page on which such information is found in the summary report which was prepared in this matter. It is intended, therefore, that this memorandum will serve as a convenient supplement to that summary.

July 19, 1934

On this date Alvin Karpis, using the name of Charles Bronson, purchased a 1934 Ford Coupe, Motor #18-1057480, from the George A. Falke Motor Company, 17600 Detroit Avenue, Cleveland, Ohio. Testimony with reference to the purchase of this car will be furnished by Robert Donley, page 82, and Miss Ruth Winterfield, page 84.

September 1-12,

On September 1, 1934 William Harrison and Harry Sawyer registered into rooms 1004 and 1005 at the El Comodoro Hotel, Miami, Florida. Harrison had been acquainted with Adams for approximately five years prior thereto. These parties remained in these rooms until September 12, 1934. It was during this period that large quantities of Bremer ransom money were exchanged by Cassius McDonald in Havana, Cuba. McDonald was a frequent visitor during this period to the rooms of Harrison and Sawyer.

September 10, 1934

On or about this date Harrison delivered to Joe Adams a Browning Automatic Rifle with the request that it be retained by Adams until he, Harrison, returned. This date is reached by virtue of Adams' statement to the effect that Harrison delivered this gun to him about two days before Harrison's departure from the hotel. It is noted that his departure occurred on September 12, 1934.

It is noted that on Page 110 of the summary report that Adams admits that just before Thanksgiving, 1934 he spoke to Fred Barker, who was known to him as Blackburn, about this package, asking Blackburn if he knew when Harrison would return to Miami. Adams admits that he did not tell Blackburn that the package contained a gun.

September 20, 1934

Alvin Karpis and Dolores Delaney registered at the El Comodoro Hotel under the name of J. Wagner and Mrs. Wagner of Detroit, Michigan, occupying room 1008. Upon arrival Karpis asked for Adams who was then absent from the hotel. About an hour and a half or two hours later Adams called Karpis. Adams declares that Karpis introduced himself as a friend of Cassius McDonald. Adams arranged for the purchase of tickets via boat for Karpis and Dolores Delaney to Havana, Cuba. On the night of September 20, 1934, Karpis delivered to Adams the keys to the Ford Coupe mentioned above and stated that "the owner or Willie Harrison would come down and get the car. He said that if I wanted to use it that it would be O.K. and that if Harrison or the owner didn't come for it I could sell it".

September 21, 1934

Karpis and Dolores Delaney left Miami, Florida for Havana, Cuba. Upon taking their departure Adams addressed Karpis as "Ray" at which time Karpis introduced Dolores as his wife.

September 29 -
November 7, 1934

On this date Fred Barker in the name of T. C. Blackburn, and Harry Campbell in the name of G. L. Summers, registered at the El Comodoro Hotel, occupying room 811. On October 6, 1934 they were transferred to room 1005. It is noted on page 111 of the summary report that, according to Adams, when Fred Barker registered as Blackburn he advised Adams that McDonald had sent him to the El Comodoro Hotel. They registered as having come from St. Charles, Illinois. Blackburn and Summers registered out of the hotel on November 7, 1934.

September 30 -
November 7, 1934
Page 8

On this date Kate Barker, using the name of Mrs. G. E. Ryan of South Bend, Illinois, registered into room 907 of the El Comodoro Hotel where she remained until November 7, 1934. On October 6, 1934 Kate Barker was transferred from room 907 to room 1004.

October 16, 1934

On this date Nathaniel Heller directed a cablegram to Joe Adams which is quoted as follows:

"When does party expect to come over.
Have you heard from Willie. Answer collect."

This cablegram appears to have been paid in cash at the Hotel Parkview, Havana, Cuba.

October 18, 1934

On this date Nathaniel Heller sent a cablegram to Adams at the El Comodoro Hotel, Miami, Florida, which stated -

"Can Willie come tomorrow. Heller"

This cablegram was paid in cash at the Hotel Parkview, Havana, Cuba,

October 25, 1934
Page 71

On this date Joe Adams sent a cablegram to Mr. Heller, Parkview Hotel, Havana, Cuba, which is quoted as follows:

"Ryan arrives Thursday plane. Adams"

In connection with this cablegram, page 235 of the summary report, points out that Miss Inez Stowe, Pan-American Airways, can produce records showing that on October 25, 1934, Mary Ryan purchased ticket No. AR33302 for transportation from Miami to Havana. She can produce further records showing that on October 30, 1934, Mary Ryan travelled from Havana to Miami, using the return portion of ticket No. AR33302.

November 2, 1934

On this date it is shown that Heller directed a cablegram to Joe Adams stating -

"Did anyone come over, if not, when. Answer immediately collect. Heller"

This cablegram was paid in cash and appears to have been charged to room 408 of the Hotel Parkview. Page 158 of the summary report shows that an examination of the books and records of the Parkview Hotel, Havana, Cuba, reflected that Alvin Karpis was occupying room 408 of the Hotel Parkview, Havana, Cuba, on November 2, 1934.

November 6, 1934

On this date Joe Adams telephoned and communicated with Carson Bradford with reference to the renting of the Bradford home at Oklawaha, Florida to an elderly woman and her two grown sons. Likewise on this date Bradford while at the El Comodore Hotel received from Adams $150.00 in rental money which was to constitute the rent for the first and last months. It appears that this was definitely the date on which the renting of the Bradford property was actually consummated. This conclusion is reached in view of the above and in view of the further fact that Fred Barker, Harry Campbell and Kate Barker, registered out of the El Comodore Hotel on November 7, 1934. The further conclusion is reached that the said parties moved to Oklawaha on November 7, 1934.

November 10-15,
Pages 88 and 89

On an unidentified date between the above mentioned dates, Adams advised Fred Barker that he was going to Tennessee at which time Barker requested Adams to purchase him some license plates. He furnished Adams with the appropriate description of his car. While at Etowah, Tennessee Adams prevailed upon a friend, Harry R. Cook, to purchase the said plates. These plates were actually purchased on November 16, 1934 as is shown on page 97 of the summary report. This same information is borne out in the signed statement of Adams appearing on page 112 of the summary report.

November 14, 1934

On this date Dolores Delaney, using the name of Dolores Wagner, and Nathaniel Heller, using the name of Nat Heller, embarked at Havana, Cuba for Key West, Florida on the SS Cuba, occupying state-rooms 240 and 216, respectively. Records to this effect can be produced by Joseph H. Wallace, District Manager, Immigration and Naturalization Service, whose testimony will be found on page 236 of the summary report.

The records of the El Comodoro Hotel disclose that on November 14, 1934, M. H. Heller registered into room 1004 and registered out on November 20, 1934. The records likewise show that Dolores Delaney as Mrs. E. H. Wagner, City, registered into room 1005 on the said date.

November 18, 1934

Dolores Delaney in the name of Mrs. E. H. Wagner, registered out of room 1005 of the El Comodoro Hotel. On the same date, using the name of Dolores Wagner, she returned to Havana, Cuba via Pan-American Airways on ticket No. AR35884. This information is found on page 235 of the summary report.

November 18, 1934

At about 9:00 o'clock A. M. on this date Special Agents M. C. Falkner and M. C. Douglas registered into rooms 917 and 1001 of the El Comodoro Hotel. Their purpose in being in the hotel was to observe Duke Randall to ascertain whether he contacted any members of the Karpis-Barker gang. Mr. Falkner maintained a surveillance of the lobby from the time of registering into the hotel until about 1:00 P. M. of November 17, 1934, at which time he was relieved by Mr. Douglas and returned to his room. He returned to the lobby to relieve Mr. Douglas at approximately 8:00 P. M. on the said date. The said Agents remained in the hotel until approximately 8:00 o'clock P. M. on November 18, 1934 when they registered out.

November 19, 1934

On this date either during the afternoon or the early evening hours, Special Agents Clarence Hurt and C. G. Campbell registered into the El Comodoro Hotel, the identity of the rooms not being recalled, but were situated on the 11th floor. Their purpose was to observe the activities of Randall and Codomo. These Agents did not maintain a strict and continuous surveillance of the hotel or the lobby. They made only casual observations. They registered out of the hotel at about noontime on November 21, 1934 when they registered into the LaSalle Hotel at 844 Collins Avenue, Miami Beach, Florida. While registered at the El Comodoro Hotel these Agents interviewed L. E. Gray, Assistant Manager, with reference to Codomo and Randall but made no inquiries with reference to the Karpis-Barker gang and in no way associated Codomo or Randall with that gang. No photographs were shown to Gray on this occasion and the first occasion on which photographs were shown to Gray was on January 16, 1935.

November 21, 1934

On this date Joe Adams sent the following telegram to T. C. Blackburn, Carson Bradford Home, Oklawaha, Florida.

"I have been sick stop papers will start today sorry of delay stop mailing plates today stop thanks for fish, did enjoy them so much stop regards to all - Joe Adams"

On this date Fred Barker in the name of T. C. Blackburn of St. Charles, Illinois, and Kate Barker in the name of Mrs. Ryan of St. Charles, Illinois, registered into rooms 904 and 905, respectively, of the El Comodoro Hotel where they remained until November 25, 1934.

On this date William Milton Johnson, a bellboy of the El Comodoro Hotel, who had previously been employed by Kate and Fred Barker at Oklawaha, Florida, wrote a letter to Mr. and Mrs. Blackburn, Oklawaha, Florida. This letter was actually dated on November 23, 1934. The pertinent portion thereof is quoted herewith as follows:

"Mr. Adams has been away and has been ill, and that is the reason he has not sent the papers, but no doubt, by this time, you have received them".

This letter was mailed at Miami, Florida at 7:50 P. M. on November 24, 1934. It was written on a typewriter and was signed in the handwriting of Johnson as W. M. Johnson.

November 25, 1934

On one of these two dates Mr. L. W. Thomas first spoke to Joe Adams and R. T. Knight with reference to the renting of his home in Miami. It will be remembered that this is the home located at 1121 85th Street, N. E., Miami, Florida, which was rented by Alvin Karpis and Dolores Delaney in the name of Green on December 12, 1934.

November 25, 1934

On this date Harry Campbell and Wynona Burdette, using the name of G. F. Summers and wife, registered into the El Comodoro Hotel, occupying Room 905. They remained in this room until December 11, 1934, when they checked out of the said hotel.

November 28, 1934

Fred Barker and Kate Barker, using the names of T. C. Blackburn and Mrs. G. E. Ryan, ordered from the Krueger Florist Company, Silver Springs Boulevard, Ocala, Florida, two dozen chrysanthemums to be sent to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Adams, El Comodoro Hotel, Miami, Florida.

November 29, 1934

On this date Harry Campbell and Wynona Burdette were occupying Room 905 at the El Comodoro Hotel. Wynona has informed that papers were being sent up to their room by Joe Adams. She recalls that one of the papers, which was issued in Chicago, carried the photograph of Alvin Karpis.

An examination of the files of the Chicago Tribune, Chicago, Illinois, disclosed that there appeared in the One Star Final (Home) Edition of the Chicago Tribune on page two on November 29, 1934, a bust photograph of Alvin Karpis under the caption "With Nelson?" The statement underneath this photograph mentions that Alvin Karpis, St. Paul gangster, may have been the companion of Nelson in the battle with Federal Agents at Barrington, Illinois. It is to be noted that former Special Agent H. E. Hollis and former Inspector Samuel P. Cowley were killed during a gun battle with Lester Gillis alias Baby Face Nelson near Barrington, Illinois, on November 27, 1934.

November 30, 1934

On this date a person identified as Fred Barker made a telephone call from the Oklawaha Inn, Oklawaha, Florida, to Joe Adams at the El Comodoro Hotel in Miami, Florida. During this conversation, Fred Barker complained to Adams with reference to the water and light bills which apparently had been incurred by a former occupant of the Carson Bradford home at Oklawaha, Florida. Fred Barker has been identified by Mrs. Rhoda Motley as having made the call in question. It is to be noted that Adams admitted to Special Agent in Charge J. H. Hanson that Fred Barker made such a call to him.

November 30, 1934

On this date Fred Barker brought a deer head to Mr. E. Ross Allen, Director, Florida Reptile Institute, Silver Springs, Florida, for the purpose of mounting. At that time Fred Barker ordered that when the deer head had been mounted it should be delivered to Joe Adams at the El Comodoro Hotel, Miami, Florida. In this connection it should be stated that Joe Adams delivered to Special Agent in Charge Hanson a receipt executed by the Florida Reptile Institute, dated December 2, 1934, indicating that T. C. Blackburn, of Oklawaha, Florida, had paid $20.00 for the purpose of having an eight point deer head mounted, to be sent to Mr. Joe Adams at the El Comodoro Hotel, Miami, Florida.

December 1, 1934

On this date Duke Randall stopped at the Blackburn home at Oklawaha, Florida, where he gathered up a quantity of oranges and delivered the same to Joe Adams at the El Comodoro Hotel. This date is reached by virtue of the statement of Randall on page 134 of the summary report to the effect that on or about December 1, 1934, he made a trip to Quincy, Florida, and on his return to Miami stopped at Oklawaha and picked up these oranges. It is to be noted that Willie Woodbury has furnished similar information.

December 4, 1934
Pages 157

On this date Dolores Delaney, using the name of Dolores Wagner, left Havana, Cuba, for Miami, Florida, travelling via Pan-American Airways Plane NCS1-V, R.O.D. This is the occasion on which Dolores Delaney fled from Cuba upon information to the effect that a G-man had been observed in the Parkview Hotel in Havana, Cuba.

December 5, 1934

On this date Alvin Karpis, using the name of Edward W. Wagner, embarked at Havana, Cuba, for Key West, Florida, sailing on the S.S. Cuba, and occupying Stateroom 105. This was the occasion on which Karpis fled from Havana, allegedly upon the advice of Nathaniel H. Heller, Manager of the Parkview Hotel, Havana, Cuba, to the effect that a G-man had registered into the said hotel. On this trip Karpis was accompanied by Nathaniel H. Heller, who occupied Stateroom 234 on the S.S. Cuba.

The records of the El Comodoro Hotel disclose that Heller, under the name of W. H. Heller, Havana, Cuba, registered in Room 1005 of that hotel on December 5, 1934, and registered out on December 7, 1934.

The records of said hotel also disclose that on December 5, 1934, individuals known as J. B. Bolton and E. N. Howe, both of Chicago, Illinois, registered in Rooms 404 and 405, respectively, of the said hotel. J. B. Bolton has been identified as Doc Barker, while E. N. Howe has been identified as Willie Harrison.

The statement of L. E. Gray (see on page 17 of the summary report) points out that he recognized Howe as being identical with Alvin Karpis. That, of course, is in error and the confusion undoubtedly lies in the fact that Alvin Karpis and Dolores Delaney did occupy Room 405 beginning with the night of December 5, 1934.

With reference to the registration of Doc Barker as Bolton and Harrison as Howe, the registration records disclose that they registered out of their rooms on December 13 and December 15, 1934, respectively.

Reference is made to page 214 of the summary report wherein it is shown that Dolores Delaney, upon returning to Miami, did not register at the El Comodoro Hotel on the night of December 4, 1934, but actually resided at another hotel in the vicinity, but that on the morning of December 5, 1934, she visited the El Comodoro Hotel where she came upon Willie Harrison while waiting for Adams. She has informed that when she and Harrison walked into Adams' office, he greeted her with "Hello, Dolores." He had not previously been advised of her correct name. At this meeting Dolores asked Adams if he had seen "Freddie and mother," using those names. To this Adams replied that he would try to get in touch with them for her.

On December 5, 1934, as is shown on page 215 of the summary report, Dolores Delaney drove to Homestead, Florida, in the automobile of Willie Harrison and Doc Barker, where she picked up Alvin Karpis, bringing him back to the El Comodoro Hotel. They immediately took occupancy of Room 404 which had actually been registered in the name of J. B. Bolton by Doc Barker.

December 5-8, 1934

According to Wynona Burdette, Adams visited Karpis, Doc Barker, Willie Harrison and the girls in Room 405 on one occasion between these dates. The girls went into the adjoining room during this conversation. The conclusion as to the correct date is reached in view of the fact that Doc and Willie registered into the hotel on December 5th and departed from the hotel on December 8th. It would appear that they departed on December 8th because information furnished by both Dolores Delaney and Wynona Burdette is to the effect that they departed on the same date as Kate Barker, Fred Barker and Harry Campbell arrived at the hotel. The registration records disclose that these last three named parties arrived on December 8th and that Fred Barker and Kate Barker were registered into Rooms 1004 and 1005, respectively, from which rooms they departed on December 11, 1934.

December 6, 1934

At 1:17 P. M. on this date, Adams sent the following message to Fred Barker, as T. C. Blackburn, c/o Carson Bradford Home, Oklawaha, Florida: "PHONE ME JOE". It is pointed out that on December 5, 1934, Dolores Delaney had asked Adams if he had seen "Freddie and mother." It is further pointed out that on the morning of December 6, 1934, Alvin Karpis went down and talked to Adams in his office. It would appear, therefore, that the telegram was sent at the instance and request of Alvin Karpis. It is noted that apparently in response to this telegram, Kate and Fred Barker and Harry Campbell proceeded to the El Comodoro Hotel at Miami, Florida, as it appears they registered at that point on December 8, 1934.

December 7, 1934

M. H. Keller registered out of the El Comodoro Hotel.

December 8, 1934

Wynona Burdette has informed that on the day Campbell returned to the hotel, which the registration shows was on December 8, 1934, Adams visited Campbell in Room 905. This would seem to be in corroboration of the statement of Bryan Bolton to the effect that Adams would visit the rooms after the boys had registered in and collect additional rentals.

On December 8, 1934, Dolores Delaney visited the office of Dr. F. O. Nichols for treatment, having been referred to same by Adams. It is to be noted that Dr. Nichols has informed that some time during the early part of December, 1934, Adams told him that he would send him a young expectant mother.

December 10 and 11,

Dolores Delaney has furnished the information that when Fred Barker appeared at the hotel on December 8, 1934, he brought with him fish which had been caught at Lake Weir; that a fish dinner was prepared and served in Rooms 404 and 405, which was attended by Kate Barker, Fred Barker, Alvin Karpis, Dolores Delaney, Harry Campbell and Wynona Burdette. As a result of this fish dinner, Dolores became sick on the night of December 10th and it became necessary to call Dr. Nichols. His records disclose that he was called on the night of December 10th and attended Dolores on the early morning hours of December 11, 1934. At the time of this call, Dolores Delaney and Karpis were still occupying Rooms 404 and 405. This would lend credence to the conclusion that they continued in these rooms from December 5, 1934, and after December 8, 1934, when Willie Harrison and Doc Barker are alleged to have departed.

On this date Harry Campbell and Wynona Burdette registered out of the El Comodoro Hotel and moved to Oklawaha, Florida, where they remained until January 13, 1935, when they registered again into the said hotel, from which place they departed on January 14, 1935, when they commenced living with Dolores Delaney and Alvin Karpis at the Thomas home in Miami.

The hotel records further show that Fred Barker, under the name of T. C. Blackburn, and Kate Barker, under the name of Mrs. G. E. Ryan, registered out of the El Comodoro Hotel on December 11, 1934.

December 12, 1934

On this date Dolores Delaney, under the name of Mrs. S. A. Green, executed a lease for the rental of the L. W. Thomas home located at 1121 Northeast 85th Street, Miami, Florida. It is to be noted on page 56 of the summary report that Mr. Thomas has informed it was on or about November 25 or 26, 1934, that he first mentioned to Adams the possibility of obtaining a renter for his home. It is not definitely shown exactly when Karpis and Dolores Delaney took occupancy at the Thomas home, although the lease was signed on December 12, 1934. This indefiniteness arises from the fact that they continued to occupy Rooms 404 and 405 at the El Comodoro Hotel until December 13 and 15, 1934, respectively, when it is shown that departures were made from the said rooms.

December 15, 1934

On or about this date Joe Adams took Alvin Karpis to Oklawaha, Florida, to visit with Kate and Fred Barker, Wynona Burdette, and Harry Campbell. This approximate date is reached by virtue of the fact that Wynona Burdette has informed that this visit by Karpis and Adams was made two or three days after they arrived at Oklawaha. The registration records of the hotel disclose that Kate, Fred, Wynona and Harry departed from the hotel on December 11, 1934. It, therefore, would be reasonable to believe that the visit of Karpis and Adams must have been made about December 15th. On the occasion of this visit Wynona recalls that Adams talked with the boys privately for several hours and then departed; that at one time during this visit Wynona overheard Adams tell Campbell and Fred Barker there were some Government men in Miami and that Barker and Campbell "had better get out of Oklawaha as the Government men might find out they were there."

December 15, 1934

Further credence is loaned to the fact that Karpis and Dolores Delaney remained at the El Comodoro Hotel until December 15, 1934, because it is shown on page 22 of the summary report under the testimony of Mrs. Agnes Gray and also under the testimony of James Grant that on December 15, 1934, a radio was sent to Room 405, which was then being occupied by Alvin Karpis. On page 217 of the summary report it appears that Adams told Dolores Delaney and Karpis that he wanted them to remain in their rooms as much as possible and did not want them running in and out of the hotel; that to keep them company he sent them a radio.

About 3:00 P. M. on this date, Joe Adams telephonically called Dr. A. Hampton, Manager of the Official Physicians' and Surgeons' Exchange and Nurses' Register, with the statement that he desired to obtain a practical nurse-book for a Mrs. Green. It was through Dr. Hampton that Adams was able to obtain the services of Terese Carmichael for Dolores Delaney and Alvin Karpis.

December 16, 1934

Wynona Burdette has stated that on the morning following the visit of Adams, Fred Barker, Alvin Karpis and Harry Campbell had to go to Miami for a week or more on business. The date of December 16th is reached only approximately, having proper regard to the date of December 15th on which Adams is alleged to have visited the said members of the gang at Oklawaha. The statement that members of the gang went to Miami is corroborated further by the statement of Dolores Delaney (see on page 218 of the summary report) to the effect that a few days after she and Karpis moved into their new home in Miami, Adams drove Karpis to Oklawaha because Karpis did not then own a car. Wynona has stated that about daybreak following the visit of Adams, the three boys, Alvin Karpis, Fred Barker and Harry Campbell, left for Miami. The statement of Dolores Delaney on page 218 of the summary is in accord with this, wherein she states: "Alvin returned on the following day with Fred Barker and Harry Campbell." It, therefore, appears that Adams must have visited with Karpis and others at Oklawaha on or about December 15, 1934, and that Karpis returned to Miami with Fred and Harry the following day, December 16th. Wynona's statement discloses that the boys intended to be gone for a week or more. The statement of Dolores Delaney (seen on page 218) reflects that Harry and Fred remained at her home on this occasion in Miami for about five days. The fact that this trip occurred on or about that time is shown by the further fact that on December 22, 1934, Fred Barker and Alvin Karpis purchased jewelry from the D. B. Sutton Jewelry Company through Joe Adams and that on December 22, 1934, Karpis engaged Duke Randall to purchase a Buick two-door coupe in the name of Leroy Morrison. Wynona, on page 229, points out that she and Kate Barker took a trip during the absence of the boys and returned on the same day as the boys returned, at which time Willie Woodbury handed them a letter inclosed in a sealed envelope, signed by Joe Adams, which, according to Wynona's recollection, instructed the gang to get out of Oklawaha and to stay out; that he was tired of warning them and that he wanted to see the boys as soon as they got back.

December 18, 1934

Terese Carmichael started work for Alvin Karpis and Dolores Delaney on this date.

December 22, 1934
Page 99

On this date Duke Randall, using the name of Leroy Morrison, purchased a Buick sedan from the Unger Buick Company, Miami, Florida, for Alvin Karpis. The purchase price of this car was $1,080.00. This money was furnished to Randall by Karpis in the office of Joe Adams on the same date. It is noted on page 101 of the summary report that the receipt for this car was found among the personal effects of Randall at the time of his arrest. Page 102 of the summary points out that M. S. Altmyer of the Unger Buick Company will produce books and records to show the sale of this car. Page 104 of the summary notes that Adams called Mr. A. A. Unger on or about the first part of December, 1934, telling him that he, Adams, had a prospect for the purchase of a Buick automobile. It is Mr. Unger's recollection that Adams mentioned the name of Morrison as the prospective purchaser. Page 115 of the summary points out that Adams admits having called Unger with regard to the possible purchase of a car by Blackburn.

On this date Randall, at the specific request of Adams, obtained certain jewelry on approval from the D. B. Sutton Jewelry Company of Miami, Florida, which was furnished to Alvin Karpis and Fred Barker in the private office of Joe Adams in the El Comodoro Hotel. After a selection had been made, Randall returned the unpurchased jewelry to the Sutton Jewelry Company.

On this date Cassius McDonald visited Alvin Karpis where the latter was residing at the Thomas home. It is to be noted that Adams has admitted having furnished Karpis' address to McDonald on this occasion.

On or about this date, Adams prevailed upon Randall to make a trip to Etowah, Tennessee, where the latter was to contact Harry Cook and give him $50.00 for the purpose of having Cook forget about Adams' having engaged Cook to purchase certain license plates for T. G. Blackburn. It is shown that on December 26, 1934, Randall purchased a round-trip ticket via Eastern Airlines from Miami, Florida, to Atlanta, Georgia. It would, therefore, appear that Randall commenced his trip to Etowah, Tennessee, on that date. This ticket was stamped at Atlanta, Georgia, on January 1, 1935, indicating that Randall returned to Miami from Atlanta on that date. Randall has pointed out in a statement dated January 26, 1935, that when he left Jacksonville there was some question as to whether the airplane would go through, whereupon he wired Adams as to the procedure which should be taken if the plane did not fly to Atlanta. It is shown that on December 31, 1934, Adams sent Randall a wire at the Jacksonville Airport which stated: "USE OWN JUDGMENT THE QUICKEST WAY JOE." Randall did, in fact, proceed to Etowah, Tennessee, where he gave Harry Cook $50.00 and told him to forget about Joe Adams and the license plates. Page 120 of the summary points out that on January 1, 1935, at Atlanta, Georgia, Randall sent a wire to Adams, stating: "HAD TOUGH BREAKS ALL THE WAY THROUGH BUT MADE IT OK MET HARRY AND EVERY-THING IS FINE LEAVING ON 6 OCLOCK PLANE WILL ARRIVE 12:05 IN MIAMI WILL MEET YOU IN HOTEL WHEN I GET IN."

December 28, 1934

The records of the El Comodoro Hotel disclose that Doc Barker, using the name of J. B. Bolton, and Russell Gibson, using the name of J. Roberts, both of Chicago, registered into Room 702, and likewise registered out on the same date. These parties were registered in by Mrs. L. E. (Agnes) Gray as commercial men.

December 29, 1934

On this date Adams sent a telegram to T. C. Blackburn at Oklawaha, Florida, for Cassius McDonald. Adams has admitted having written this message in his own handwriting. The message is quoted as follows: "LIKE TO SEE YOU SUNDAY CASH."

December 31, 1934

According to Willie Woodbury, Fred Barker and Harry Campbell drove to Miami on the day before New Year, bearing gifts for the expected baby of Dolores Delaney and Alvin Karpis. It would appear that this trip may have been made in response to the wire which Adams sent for Cassius McDonald.

January 1, 1935

On or about this date, according to the statement of Dolores Delaney, Doc Barker and Russell Gibson visited Karpis and Dolores at their home in Miami, where they remained for approximately three days. It is more credible that Doc Barker and Gibson visited Karpis and Dolores on the night of December 28, 1934, because the registration records of the El Comodoro Hotel show that these parties registered into and out of the said hotel on that date.

January 1, 1935

According to Willie Woodbury, Doc Barker and Russell Gibson appeared at the Barker home at Oklawaha, Florida, where they remained for a day or two. It is to be noted that Doc Barker and Gibson returned to Chicago, arriving there on or about January 4, 1935. It is definitely known that they were in Chicago several days prior to the apprehension of Doc Barker and the death of Gibson on the night of January 8, 1935.

January 10, 1935

According to Wynona Burdette, on or about this date Joe Adams visited Fred Barker and Harry Campbell at Oklawaha. He remained there about four hours, during which time he talked to Fred Barker and Harry Campbell in the boathouse.

January 10, 1935

Duke Randall has informed that about a week before the shooting at Oklawaha, Florida, Adams called him to his office, telling him that he had a rifle which a friend had left with him and which he, Adams, did not wish found on him in case anything should happen. He showed Randall this gun, instructing that Randall should have a box made for the same. Accordingly, Randall arranged to have Lee Kane, the carpenter of the El Comodoro Hotel, make this box. When the box had been completed, Adams delivered the gun to Randall, instructing that the gun be placed in the box and that a fictitious name be inscribed on the box, which, in turn, should be checked into the checkroom of the El Comodoro Hotel.

On this date Campbell and Wynona Burdette left the Barkers at Oklawaha and registered in at the El Comodoro Hotel, occupying Room 705 in the name of G. F. Summers and wife. They registered out on January 14, 1935. Without even remaining in the hotel on the night of January 13, 1935, Campbell and Wynona went to live with Dolores and Karpis at their home in Miami. According to the registration records it would, therefore, appear that Wynona Burdette and Campbell had lived with the Barkers at Oklawaha from December 11, 1934, to January 13, 1935, and that they lived with Alvin Karpis from the night of January 13, 1935, until the evening of January 16, 1935, on which date the shooting occurred at Oklawaha in which Kate and Fred Barker were killed while resisting arrest.

January 14, 1935

On this date Dolores accompanied Wynona in checking out of the El Comodoro Hotel.

January 16, 1935

L. E. Gray was interviewed by Agents Brown, McKee and Campbell. This was the first occasion on which Gray was advised that Agents were seeking the apprehension of members of the Karpis-Barker gang. It was likewise the first occasion on which photographs of this group were shown to Mr. Gray. It was pointed out that Gray disclosed this confidential information to Mr. Wilson, manager of the dining room, who, in turn, advised R. T. Knight, the father-in-law of Adams.

January 16, 1935

At about 3:30 P. M. on this date, Duke Randall telephonically communicated with Dolores, asking for Ray Green. When he was advised she was the wife of Ray Green, he told her to get out of town immediately. It is pointed out that during the early morning hours of January 17, 1935, while Randall was harboring Wynona Burdette and Dolores Delaney in his room at the Tamiami Hotel, he disclosed to Dolores that he was the one who had called her, advising her to get out of town immediately. On page 68 of the summary report it is shown under the testimony of Terese Carmichael that at about 5:00 P. M. on January 16, 1935, Dolores received a telephone call; that she and Wynona immediately commenced packing and that within fifteen or twenty minutes they departed, having placed their luggage in the car; that before leaving, Dolores told Terese she was departing for home.

On the afternoon of this date, according to Randall, he was sitting in the hotel lobby with Adams when the latter mentioned the shooting scrape at Oklawaha. At this time Adams stated to Randall: "That's what you get for doing favors for people." He then stated: "I rented that house at Lake Weir to that old lady and her son. They must have been wanted by the police, because there was a terrible shooting match up there this morning."

January 16, 1935

The statements of Duke Randall, Wynona Burdette, and Dolores Delaney disclose that on the night of January 16, 1935, Wynona approached Duke Randall at the money changing window of the Biscayne Kennel Club with the statement that Mr. Morrison wished to see him. Accordingly, Randall arranged to see Karpis and Campbell between 11:30 P. M. and 12:30 A. M. that night. It was on this occasion that Randall advised these parties to go to the Danmor Hotel in Atlantic City, New Jersey. On this occasion likewise Karpis advised Randall to obtain a one thousand dollar bill from Adams and to also get two hundred dollars for himself. The one thousand dollar bill was to be delivered to Dolores Delaney. After arrangements had been made, Randall took the girls to his room in the Tamiami Hotel where he held them out to be his sisters. They remained there during the night of January 16, 1935.

At about 6:00 A. M. on this date Dolores gave Randall $150.00 with which to buy tickets for the two girls to Atlantic City. At about this same hour Randall purchased these tickets at the Florida East Coast Railroad Station. At about 9:00 A. M. on this date Duke Randall obtained from Adams in his private office at the El Comodoro Hotel a one thousand dollar bill. At this time he advised Adams that he had been instructed by Karpis to obtain this money and told Adams further that he had sent these parties to Atlantic City. After receiving this one thousand dollar bill Randall arranged for the changing of the same through a clerk, Mr. A. R. Marshman, of the Tamiami Hotel. At about 9:30 A. M. on the said date Wynona and Dolores departed by train for Atlantic City.

Randall is of the belief it was on this date that he attempted to sell the Browning automatic rifle to Merle H. Rolfe. Rolfe, however, on page 162 of the summary, states that the attempted sale occurred on January 18, 1935.

At 3:00 P. M. on this date Dolores Delaney and Wynona Burdette registered at the Danmor Hotel, Atlantic City, New Jersey, in the names of Mrs. A. B. Graham and sister.

January 19, 1935

At 1:30 A. M. on this date Alvin Kerpis and Harry Campbell, using the names of Carson and Cameron, respectively, registered at the Danmor Hotel, Atlantic City, New Jersey.

At about 1:00 A. M. on this date, while Duke Randall and his friend, Mary Irene "Billie" Koreen, alias Mary Goodman, were visiting the Bowery Club at Miami Beach, Florida, he was told that three attempts had been made to reach him by telephone and that he, the cashier, had been told to tell Randall there had been a shooting scrape at Atlantic City and that he should get out of town. Randall then persuaded his lady friend to call Bill Morley at the Morley Cigar Store in Atlantic City. As a result of this call she learned that there had been a shooting scrape and that two men had gotten away while the two girls had been captured.

January 21, 1935

Randall was taken into custody by Special Agents at the Tamiami Hotel, Miami, Florida, where he was occupying Room 517.

January 22, 1935

On this date former Special Agent R. L. Jones recovered from Gregory Codomo, at the Bowers Club, 37 Ocean Drive, Miami Beach, Florida, a Ford sedan, Motor No. 18-1190702. It is to be noted that this car was left in the possession of Duke Randall by Wynona Burdette at the time of her flight to Atlantic City. This car was owned by Harry Campbell in the name of Summers.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

Re: Harboring at Toledo.

I telephoned Mr. Brantley of the Kansas City Division, who was at Leavenworth, and told him that in discussing the above entitled matter with you, you were wondering just how much Wynn and Kitchen were tied up on the investigation of the Baker case. Mr. Brantley said that information is now coming in from the auxiliary offices, and they intended to start the preparation of a summary report within two days. The case is supposed to go to the grand jury on the 24th of this month.

I told Mr. Brantley that we would like to have those men get out of there as soon as possible for Cleveland for a conference with the USA and his assistants relative to the above entitled case, prior to its presentation to the grand jury on this coming Monday; that they will be there for only a couple of days, and they can then return to Kansas City to assist in the preparation of the Summary Report.

Mr. Brantley said that he would get these two men out of there for Cleveland either tonight or the first thing in the morning.

Time - 2:35 P.M.

I telephoned Agent Ross at the Cleveland Division and told him that arrangements have been made with the Kansas City Division to have Agents Wynn and Kitchen leave there late tonight or in the morning to come to Cleveland so that they can go over with the USA the above entitled case. I told Mr. Ross to transmit this information to Mr. MacFarland so that he can so inform the U. S. Attorney.

I told Mr. Ross that it should be pointed out to the USA that these men must be released just as soon as humanly possible for the reason that they have to return to Kansas City for the purpose of getting the Baker case ready for the grand jury.

Sheriff Kitchin stated he is continuing his efforts to discreetly find out, through informants, the present whereabouts of White and Groves, and suggested that no further contact be made at the Fountain home at this time, inasmuch as to do so would very probably arouse the suspicion of Mrs. Fountain. He stated that in the event other efforts to obtain the desired information fails, he may raid the Fountain home for whiskey, since it is believed she is engaged in the illicit traffic of liquor, and at that time will make a thorough search of the premises, ostensibly for liquor, but in reality for any mail matter or memoranda which may contain the address of Benson Groves.

At Macon, Georgia, contact has been maintained with the General Delivery for mail to J. M. Hall, from Mrs. Fountain, with negative results.

UNDEVELOPED LEADS:

THE ATLANTA FIELD DIVISION at Jeffersonville, Georgia, will again interview Sheriff Sam Kitchin for any recent information concerning the present location of Benson Groves, or one White, as referred to by the Sheriff in the body of this report.

At Gordon, Georgia, will interview the Postmaster or the Rural mail carrier who delivers mail to Mrs. O. D. Fountain, for any information pertaining to communications to Mrs. Fountain which might have come from Benson Groves.

At Macon, Georgia, will contact the General Delivery window for any mail from Mrs. Fountain to J. M. Hall, the name given Mrs. Fountain by Agent during a previous interview.

Dear Sir:

Please find attached hereto three copies of a memorandum dated May 12, 1937, relating to a contact had by Special Agent H.B. Dill with Assistant United States Attorney G.P. Openlander at Toledo, Ohio, wherein the writer is quoted as indicating to the said Assistant United States Attorney Openlander and United States Attorney E.B. Freed that they "fussed" and "horsed" around with this matter so long that if the Statute ran in this case, it was their own fault. While the writer did not use the exact terms accredited to him, he did in fact imply definitely what the terms conclude.

MEMORANDUM TO J.P. MacFARLAND,
Special Agent in Charge:

While I was in Toledo yesterday, I went by to see Mr. Gerald P. Openlander, with reference to the bank robbery cases. It was about 9:00 o'clock when I went to his office in the Bell Building, and upon entering, he asked if I was there with reference to the Brekid matter. When I told him I was not, he stated that he was surely having a lot of trouble with the Bureau on this matter. He then related the fact that he had talked to you over the telephone about 5:30 the afternoon before (May 10th), and that he had asked you to please get some Bureau Agents over to Toledo to make a further investigation with reference to this matter, and that you told him in effect that you could not get Agents over there before the 24th of this month, and that they (United States Attorneys) had "fussed" and "horsed" around with this matter so long, that if the statute ran in this case, it was their own fault.

Mr. Openlander stated that the statute was running fast in some of these cases, however, I recall talking to Mr. Openlander, on April 23rd, with reference to this matter, and he explained at that time that the statute would not run anytime in the near future on the Brekid matter, in view of the fact that they were going to try the subjects for accessory after the fact rather than on a harboring charge, and gave his reasons for this as follows:

1. The statute would not run as soon as it would on the harboring charge.

2. Coolie Munro, who is believed to be in Canada, could be extradited on this charge, whereas he could not be extradited on a harboring charge.

3. The sentences would be much more vigorous on this charge than on a harboring charge.

After the conversation at the Bell Building with Mr. Openlander, Agent accompanied Mr. Openlander to the Federal Building, at which time, Miss Goddard, Mr. Freed's secretary, contacted Mr. Openlander telephonically, and told him that Mr. Freed was in court and she was talking for him. She informed Mr. Openlander that you had called Mr. Freed about 6:00 o'clock the day before and had told Mr. Freed, in effect, the same thing as you told Mr. Openlander, which is set out above in this memorandum. Miss Goddard then told Mr. Openlander to call Mr. McMahon at the Department and see if he could do anything with reference to getting Agents to Toledo on the Brekid matter.

Before Mr. Openlander had an opportunity to call Mr. McMahon, Mr. Shanahan called Mr. Openlander from Washington, and Mr. Shanahan did quite a bit of talking during the first part of the conversation, but Agent could not determine what Mr. Shanahan was telling Mr. Openlander, in view of the fact that Mr. Openlander did not talk and only said "Yes" on numerous occasions. During the latter part of the conversation, Mr. Openlander told Mr. Shanahan that Mr. Freed had requested that he, Mr. Openlander, call Mr. McMahon and ask Mr. McMahon if he could get some Bureau Agents to Toledo with reference to this matter. Apparently, Mr. Shanahan agreed to see Mr. McMahon as soon as possible. Agent was not present when Mr. Shanahan called Mr. Openlander again, if he called him.

This is being submitted for whatever value it may be to you.

MEMORANDUM

Re: BREKID

With reference to the defense of Duke Randall and Joseph H. Adams it is anticipated that at the appropriate moment during the course of their trial at Miami, Florida, they will renew their motion to suppress the statements which were obtained from them by Special Agents.

In this connection it is desired to summarize those possible defenses which the Government has to any such motion on the part of Randall and Adams. Attention is directed to the statements, which were obtained, from the following Special Agents in which they stated specifically the circumstances under which they obtained the signed statements of Randall and Adams: J. H. Hanson, L. B. Nichols, F. M. Stone, J. W. Going, P. C. Dunne and former Special Agent R. L. Jones. Copies of these statements by the said Agents have previously been furnished to Mr. Charles Carr, Special Assistant to the Attorney General.

Attention is now directed to the report of Special Agent in Charge J. H. Hanson, dated at Jacksonville, Florida, April 23, 1935, on page 60 of which it is shown that Duke Randall was interviewed by former Special Assistant to the Attorney General Walter L. Barlow and apparently also in the presence of J. H. Hanson and E. K. McKee. It is pointed out therein that at that time Randall reiterated the detailed information that had been secured from him and which is set out in the report of Special Agent in Charge J. H. Hanson, dated at Jacksonville, Florida, February 20, 1935.

It is also shown that Randall stated in addition thereto that in November, 1934, Mr. L. E. Gray, Clerk of the El Comodoro Hotel, had informed him that a couple of Federal Officers had been making inquiry about him and his roommate Gregory I. Codomo and the automobile which they were then driving.

During the course of that interview Randall also stated that in January, 1935, he had talked to Mr. Wilson, the dining room manager of the El Comodoro Hotel, at which time a discussion was entered into with reference to the possibility of Wilson purchasing the Ford Coupe which Randall was then driving. Randall advised that Wilson at that time told him that Joe Adams had said that he, Wilson, could take the Coupe and run it off the bridge. Randall denied that he ever told Mr. Wilson that this automobile was 'hot'. Randall also stated that when he arrived at Stowah, Tennessee, when he paid Harry Cook the $50.00, he told Cook to "Forget about Joe Adams and the license plate."

COPIES DESTROYED
20 MAR 25 1965

Attention is now directed to the statement made by Special Agent in Charge J. M. Hanson with reference to the circumstances under which he obtained the signed statement of Joseph H. Adams. On page 3 of that statement it is shown that Joseph H. Adams was reinterviewed by former Special Assistant to the Attorney General, Walter L. Barlow and Special Agent in Charge J. M. Hanson on or about April 3, 1935, in the office of the United States Attorney at Miami, Florida, at which time Adams told Mr. Barlow in Hanson's presence that he, Adams, had told the Agent everything that he knew about the case. Hanson points out that at that time Adams made no objection or comment on the manner in which his statements had been secured.

Attention is now directed to the report of Special Agent E. F. Fitzsimons, dated at Jacksonville, Florida, April 4, 1935, on page 8 of which it is shown that Agent Fitzsimons interviewed Duke Randall in the Dade County Jail in Miami, Florida, the date of the interview not being known but having taken place on a day between February 28, 1935, and March 28, 1935. The interview was conducted for the purpose of clearing up certain matters with reference to the purchase of a Buick automobile by Randall for Karpis in the name of Leroy Morrison, 444 Main Street, Buffalo, New York. During the course of this inquiry which of course was subsequent to the obtaining of the signed statement from Duke Randall, the latter denied ever having been in Buffalo and claimed to know no one at that point by the name of Morrison, nor did he know the identity of any person living at the address, 444 Main Street, Buffalo, New York. With reference to his plan for the purchase of the Buick, Randall stated that on the occasion in question Adams sent for him to come to his office in the El Comodore Hotel. He claimed that he had never seen Karpis before, however, Adams gave him instructions and Randall then asked under what name he should purchase the car, claiming that inasmuch as he had never seen Karpis and had not been introduced to him before, he did not know whose name to use. At that time he claims Karpis took a slip of paper from Adams' desk and wrote the name, "Leroy Morrison, 444 Main Street, Buffalo, New York" thereon, gave it to Randall with the remark to use the name and address on the slip of paper.

Attention is now directed to a letter of the former Trenton Office dated October 1, 1935, to the former Jacksonville Office wherein it is shown that Henry Duke Randall was interviewed by Special Agent W. D. Wills with reference to the disposition which was to be made of the automobile of Alvin Karpis which was found in the possession of Randall. This interview was, of course, subsequent to the date on which the signed statements were taken from Randall. The following significant language appears in the above mentioned letter: "Henry Randall also informed Agent Wills that just prior to the time Alvin Karpis, Harry Campbell, Dolores Delaney and Winona Burdette left Florida, Karpis told him that the girls were going to Atlantic City by train because Dolores was not able to travel by automobile, and that it would be necessary for Harry Campbell to leave his Ford Sedan in Florida. Karpis then requested Randall to put the car in some place and told Randall that Campbell would return to get it at a later date. The said car was turned over to Randall for safekeeping by Dolores Delaney and Winona Burdette, who parked the car in the parking lot of the hotel where Randall was staying. (This was the Tamiami Hotel) The two girls then turned over to Randall the automobile keys and certificate of title. Some time later Randall requested Codomo to place the automobile in a parking lot used by Codomo's employer, Ben Sipers, and at the time the automobile was turned over to the Bureau it was located in this lot. Randall further stated that so far as he knows the Ford Sedan was owned by Harry Campbell and that he has no interest in it."

From the foregoing information it appears very obvious that Randall showed a disposition to discuss freely and voluntarily the matters which had theretofore been incorporated in his various signed statements. It appears, however, that when efforts were being made to bring this matter on for trial in Florida and after Randall had had an opportunity to be served by counsel he changed his story quite completely. This change in attitude is disclosed in a memorandum submitted by Special Agent W. D. Wills, dated at Trenton, New Jersey, April 17, 1936. It is shown therein that the said Agent interviewed Duke Randall on that date. This interview was again for the purpose of making appropriate disposition of the Karpis automobile which had been found in the possession of Duke Randall. At the opening of that interview Randall advised Agent Wills that his, Randall's, trial had been postponed until May 24, 1936, and immediately following this statement Randall declared, "There will be trouble when the time comes and the Agents who were with him in Florida would pay for the way they treated him." Randall generally declared to Agent Wills that he had been kept a prisoner in a hotel room for five days being handcuffed to a bed and during the night each wrist was handcuffed to a bed; that his constitutional rights had been infringed; that he was not taken before a magistrate immediately after being arrested; that he was not given the benefit of counsel; that he was not allowed to make bail; that his statements were obtained by duress; that he had been man-handled and threatened; that the time he was placed in the Dade County Jail, Miami, Florida, Special Agents had requested that he, Randall, be placed in solitary confinement, which he alleged had been done. He further alleged that the statements obtained from him by Agents had been altered. He declared that the room in which he was confined was filled with guns; that a window was opened and that he was told to jump out; that he was told to run so a shot could be taken at him. He declared that on one occasion when he was handcuffed by each wrist to the bed as was customary each night, the occasion in question being at about 4:00 o'clock in the morning, an Agent who was sleeping in the same room jumped out of his bed with a cocked gun in his hand and ran toward the window stumbling over the bed, injuring his, the Agent's, ankle. Aroused from this commotion Randall asked what was wrong to which the Agent replied that he was dreaming that Randall was jumping out of the window. Randall complained to Agent Wills that the gun could have gone off and the bullet could have hit him, Randall. These were the general complaints which Randall had to make to Agent Wills with reference to his having been intimidated.

Agent Wills during the course of this interview took occasion to point out to Randall that on the previous occasion on which he, Randall, had been interviewed by Agent Wills which was on or about October 1, 1935, Randall had spoken very highly of the manner in which he had been treated by the Agents. Randall then countered by saying that only one or two of the said Agents were responsible for his having been man-handled and that the other Agents were "fine." Agent Wills in his memorandum points out that Randall appeared to realize that he had made assertions that he did not intend to make and quickly tried to retract the statements already given. He then declared that when he left Florida several of the Agents shook hands with him and told him good-bye. Randall also declared with reference to having been man-handled that no one actually struck him or abused him physically.

Agent Wills has now submitted a memorandum dated April 13, 1937, setting forth his recollection of the statements made to him by Randall on or about October 1, 1935, with reference to the good treatment which Randall had received at the hands of Special Agents while he was in their custody. It is Agent Wills' recollection that Randall stated that the Agents in whose custody he was confined in Miami, Florida, were a fine bunch of fellows and that they were nice to him. During the course of that interview Randall named two or three Agents only one of whom is remembered at the present time by Special Agent Wills. The Agent recalled being Special Agent F. M. Stone. During that interview on or about the first part of October, 1935, Randall advised Agent Wills that Agent Stone and others were exceptionally nice to a girl with whom he, Randall, was then keeping company. (This woman is undoubtedly Mary Irene "Billie" Koreen, otherwise known as Mary Goodman.) Randall advised Wills that his girl was taken out to dinner by the Agents on several occasions and that they treated her very nicely. It was Randall's belief, however, that the Agents were good to her because they desired to obtain information from her concerning his, Randall's, activities and associates in Florida. It is Agent Wills' recollection that Randall spoke in general terms with reference to the good treatment which he received at the hands of the Special Agents. Agent Wills in his memorandum writes, "The writer has a fair recollection of being told by Randall that he, Randall, was on occasions taken from the Dade County Jail by Bureau Agents and while he was in their care he was courteously treated in a gentlemanly manner, was given good food and cigarettes and that he thought those he had come in contact with were fine men."

This summarization had been made in the thought that it will prove of some assistance in the event that counsel for Randall and Adams renew their motion to suppress the statements of these two subjects.

With reference to Randall's desires not to be placed in jail but to be held by Agents, it should be stated that on January 29, 1935 a rough draft memorandum was prepared by Special Agent F. M. Stone and Special Agent J. W. Going, which disclosed that on that date former Assistant United States Attorney Gramling of Miami, Florida advised said Agents that Duke Randall had sent word to him, Gramling, on the night of January 28, 1935 to the effect that Randall wanted to see Gramling and indicated that he had some further information to give with reference to this case. It was Gramling's opinion that Randall desired to make disclosures with reference to the Browning Automatic Rifle which he had obtained from Joe Adams.

Mr. Gramling advised the Agents that he could not go down to see Randall because of other urgent matters and requested the said Agents to inform Randall that the latter should give to the Agents any information he cared to divulge. Accordingly, on January 29, 1935 Randall was interviewed in the Dade County Jail by Agents Stone and Going, at which time he executed the signed statement dated January 29, 1935. He also told the Agents that he had no information to furnish with regard to the gun; that his principal reason was to see whether he could get his bond reduced and get out of jail as he was "going nuts" in jail.

Randall expressed the desire to the Agents to furnish Mr. Gramling with a list of persons known to him who could vouch for his character and who could further vouch to the fact that he had never been in any trouble before. At that time he advised Agents that he had a girl friend in New York by the name of Peggy O'Neill, living at 460 45th Street, Brooklyn, New York.

Attention is now directed to the fact that during the course of the second Bremer trial in St. Paul, Minnesota in January, 1936, Joseph H. Adams was interviewed by Special Agent John L. Madala. The interview took place in the office of the United States Attorney. Particular reference was directed to the inquiry concerning a letter signed "Mr. Wagner", addressed to "Mr. Adams", which was found at the home occupied by Fred and Kate Barker at Oklawaha, Florida on January 16, 1935, and which letter Dolores Delaney admitted writing at the dictation of Alvin Karpis.

It is noted in the signed statement of Dolores Delaney that this letter was acknowledged by Adams by a cablegram two or three days after she wrote it. The contents of this letter are set out verbatim on Pages 149 and 150 of the summary report submitted in this matter.

This letter was exhibited to Adams by Agent Madala. Adams denied having received it and would not admit any knowledge that such a letter was directed to him. Adams was permitted to read this letter and was questioned particularly with reference to "that party" mentioned therein. He stated that if he had received that letter he would not know the identity of "that party", unless it referred to "Mother" Barker. He readily admitted that the party named Willie, mentioned in the letter, undoubtedly referred to William Harrison, whom he admitted knowing since 1930. Adams also denied that he acknowledged the above mentioned letter by cablegram but did admit that he transmitted several cablegrams to Alvin Karpis under the name of "Mr. Wagner" with respect to Kate Barker during the time that Karpis resided in Cuba.

Adams further advised Agent Madala in the presence of Special Agent in Charge J. H. Hanson that he, Adams, had known William Harrison for approximately five years, having first met him when he, Harrison, was selling or cashing tickets at the Miami Beach Kennel Club. He also stated that he met Harry Sawyer through Harrison, as "Sea Lion", around the first part of September, 1934; that around this period Harry Sawyer, Cassius McDonald and William Harrison were talking about opening a gambling place, either at Miami, Florida or Havana, Cuba, and in this connection he, Adams, on one occasion drove Harry Sawyer, Cassius McDonald and William Harrison around Miami, Florida to look at several sites and places for gambling. Agent Madala recalls that Adams looked over an unfurnished place in Broward County, Florida.

Adams advised Agent Madala that on one occasion during the latter part of December, 1934, Cassius McDonald came to his office at the El Comodoro Hotel and asked him where he could get in touch with Blackburn, meaning Freddie Barker, expressing a desire to see him. Adams stated that he then transmitted a telegram to Blackburn at Oklawaha, Florida, signing it "Cash", advising that he, "Cash" McDonald, wanted to see him the following Sunday.

It is to be recalled that this telegram was found on the effects of Kate and Fred Barker at their home in Oklawaha, Florida on January 16, 1935, Adams further advised Agent Madala at this time that on or about Christmas Day, 1934, "Cash" McDonald came to his office at the El Comodoro Hotel and asked him where he could get in touch with Wagner, who was later identified as Alvin Karpis. According to Adams, he gave McDonald either Karpis' telephone number or his address in Miami and volunteered to call him up for McDonald but McDonald told him that would not be necessary as he was going by the place anyhow.

Adams further informed Agent Madala he observed Alvin Karpis and Cassius McDonald talking together in the lobby of the El Comodoro Hotel around Christmas of 1934.

It is felt that Adams, by virtue of the above mentioned interview which was conducted approximately one year after his signed statement had been obtained, disclosed a willingness to discuss some of the subject matter which was contained in his signed statement. This would indicate that the data contained in the signed statement was not obtained through force and duress as he alleges.

RE: BREKID

Mr. T. J. Donegan of the New York office called me on May 11, 1937 and advised that he had Agents McNulty and Leslie assigned especially and exclusively to make efforts to locate Andrew Gurante. He said that they have been giving some consideration to the possibility of a telephone tap on Albert Gurante and likewise a possible surveillance of him.

Agents McNulty and Leslie communicated with Albert Gurante and requested him to come to the office for an interview. At that time he did not show any particular disposition to be interviewed and told the Agents that he would get in touch with them in a couple of days.

Time - 9:30 A.M.
(5/13/37)

On the morning of May 13, 1937 Mr. Donegan called advising that the Agents had interviewed Albert Gurante and are convinced that he is telling them the truth when he advises that he does not know the exact location of his brother, Andrew Gurante. He assured the Agents that the last time he communicated with his brother was on April 30, 1937, when he directed a letter to Andrew Gurante care of General Delivery, Miami, Florida. This letter has not been returned, in consequence of which it would appear that the letter was actually received. Albert Gurante has further informed that his brother is known to practically all of the leading gamblers in Florida and made a practice of having his face shaved in barber shops rather than doing this himself.

It is, therefore, suggested that it might be possible to get a line on Andrew Gurante through barber shops located in proximity to the former places of employment of Andrew Gurante. He further informed that there was a possibility that Andrew may be located in Jacksonville, Florida, where he formerly worked as house detective for the Carling Hotel. In keeping with this information a telegraphic message was sent to the Miami office by the Bureau on even date, incorporating this information and further requesting that the files of that office be thoroughly reviewed in an immediate effort to locate Andrew Gurante.

The further suggestion was made that inquiry be made through the Department of Motor Vehicles to ascertain whether Andrew Gurante has any registration record at that point.

Mr. Donegan stated that they have considered the matter of bringing Albert Gurante before a Grand Jury for the purpose of an inquiry into the location of Andrew Gurante. He advised, however, that this matter was presented to the United States Attorneys in both the Eastern and Southern Districts of New York, both offices declining to bring Albert Gurante before a Grand Jury for this purpose. They both advised that it is a matter of concern for the Miami judicial district and any action of such a character would have to be taken by that district.

Mr. Donegan stated that in view of the apparently cooperative attitude of Albert Gurante it is not considered either necessary or advisable to suggest paying him $100.00 for information as to the location of Andrew Gurante. Albert Gurante has assured Agents Leslie and McNulty that he will get in touch with them in a couple of days. Mr. Donegan stated that there would apparently be no necessity for the placing of a telephone tap or the maintenance of a surveillance of Albert Gurante. Mr. Donegan also advised that a telegram has been sent to the Miami field division requesting a thorough investigation into these matters.

The report of Special Agent H. C. Leslie, dated at New York City May 7, 1937 points out that a witness in this matter, to wit, Albert Wessels, has been served with a subpoena. I told Mr. Donegan that this party undoubtedly refers to a man who was employed by the El Comodoro Hotel and who at that time was using the name of George A. Wilson, but who confided in Agents that his correct name was George A. Wessels. I pointed out to Mr. Donegan that there is a slight possibility they may have served the subpoena upon the wrong person, in view of the fact that the party served is using the name of Albert Wessels. I asked him to look into this matter and determine if the person served is identical with the party who previously used the name of George A. Wilson at the El Comodoro Hotel in Miami, Florida. He said he would do this and advise the Bureau by wire.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. Tamm.

RE: BREKID

Mr. Shivers of the Miami office called me at this time today, advising that the jury panel in the Joseph H. Adams and Henry Duke Randall case will not be drawn until May 24, 1937. He said that when the panel has been drawn they will commence a very thorough investigation immediately. He advised me further that his office has not been having much luck in its efforts to locate Andrew Gurante. I told him to be sure and review all of the files with reference to this matter and to cover all possible leads looking toward his location. I told him to check the Bureau of Motor Vehicle Registration for the State of Florida and any other similar sources of information where licenses may have been obtained.

He said that his Agents have interviewed an attorney by the name of Myerson who is a friend of Andrew Gurante, but Myerson had no information and disclaimed having seen Gurante in a long time. I pointed out a few leads to Mr. Shivers and told him that he would soon receive a wire from the Bureau in which further investigation was requested with reference to this matter.

Mr. Shivers suggested that Dolores Delaney and Wynona Burdette will be arriving in Miami on May 18th and 19th and that Bolton will arrive there on the 19th. He said that it might be a good idea, if possible, to have these girls taken to the Tampa Jail at Tampa, Florida instead of the Miami Jail, in view of the fact that there is a strong possibility that the girls could be "reached" in the Miami Jail. I told him I would take this matter up with Mr. Charles Carr and see what could be done.

He said that in view of the fact the subpoena has already been served calling for their appearance at Miami, it would not be possible to transfer them to the jail at Tampa, Florida, but that he would immediately send a letter to the United States Attorney for the District of Florida, requesting him to make arrangements at the Dade County Jail, Miami, Florida, for the women to be held incommunicado.

Re: BREKID

Dear Sir:

Special Agents A. P. Kitchin and E. J. Wynn arrived in Cleveland, Ohio from Kansas City, Missouri on May 12, 1937, and held a conference with U. S. Attorney E. B. Freed, Cleveland, Ohio on the night of May 12, 1937 with reference to the prosecutive status in the Cleveland district of the persons who harbored members of the Barker-Karpis gang. Mr. Freed at this conference stated that Federal Judge John Killeets, retired, was to convene a Grand Jury at Toledo, Ohio on May 17, 1937 for the purpose of considering evidence to be presented by the U. S. Attorney as to Bert and Ted Angus, Edith Barry, Edward and Clara McGraw, Colin Monroe, Frank Greenwald, Art Hebebrand, John F. "Sharkey" Gorman, and Tony Amersbach, charging them as accessories after the fact to the kidnaping of Edward George Bremer; that in connection with these individuals he desired to have them taken into custody on Commissioner's warrants prior to the presentation of the case to the Grand Jury in order that they might be thoroughly interrogated for the purpose of securing admissions from them, as well as involving other persons as defendants and against whom sufficient evidence to date has not been accumulated; that such a plan was in conformity with plans previously discussed with Bureau agents.

RECORDED & INDEXED

The above information was telephonically communicated to Inspector E. J. Connelley by Special Agent E. J. Wynn on the night of May 12, 1937 and was made the subject of a teletype to the Bureau dated May 12, 1937.

Pursuant to instructions received from Inspector E. J. Connelley on May 12, 1937 and from Mr. E. A. Tamm of the Bureau on May 13, 1937, Special Agents A. P. Kitchin and E. J. Wynn on May 13, 1937 advised U. S. Attorney E. B. Freed that it would be impossible to bring into the Cleveland district at this time those agents who conducted the investigation in the harboring case, due to the fact that these agents are now scattered throughout the United States on various investigations, although they had been kept available by the Bureau for a considerable period of time after the case was presented to Mr. Freed, but that inasmuch as his opinion was delayed so long it was necessary to utilize the services of these agents; and that, therefore, if he desired the defendants to be arrested on Commissioner's warrants previous to the presentation of the case to the Grand Jury it would be necessary to deliver the Commissioner's warrants to the U. S. Marshal for service and agents would be unable for the reasons aforementioned to assist the U. S. Marshal in serving them.

Mr. Freed advised that he is presently engaged in the trial of a case of major importance in Cleveland, Ohio and that Mr. G. P. Openlander, Assistant U. S. Attorney at Toledo, is presently handling the details of this case in so far as preparation for presentation to the Grand Jury at Toledo, Ohio is concerned, it being contemplated that the Grand Jury, although convening on May 17, will not begin to consider evidence as to this case until May 19, 1937. He stated that he would advise Mr. Openlander by telephone of the fact that it would be impossible for agents of the Bureau to arrest the defendants on Commissioner's warrants prior to the preparation of the case to the Grand Jury and that he would instruct Mr. Openlander to convey this information to Mr. Bryan McMahon of the Attorney General's Office in Washington, D. C. who is directing the prosecution in this case.

Mr. Freed volunteered the statement that he was unable to state at the time of the interview what effect the inability of the agents to arrest the defendants on Commissioner's warrants would have on the case, but that this would undoubtedly be determined following a conference between Special Agents A. P. Kitchin and E. J. Wynn with Assistant U. S. Attorney G. P. Openlander at Toledo, which conference these agents contemplate holding with Mr. Openlander on May 14, 1937.

Mr. Freed, during the two conferences had with him as above mentioned, stated that he was extremely anxious to have the case presented to the Grand Jury at Toledo during the week of May 17, 1937; first, because of the question of the Statute of Limitations, and; second, because of the fact that John Brock is rapidly becoming blind, he at the present time being completely blind in one eye and having only 7% vision out of the other eye. In this connection he stated that he was extremely anxious to get the case set for trial prior to Brock's becoming totally blind, at the same time stating that it was expected that Brock would be totally blind within 90 days, but that he did not know whether he could get the case set for trial before that time even in the event the Grand Jury returned an indictment during the week of May 17, 1937, stating in this regard that although Judge Killetts had agreed to convene the Grand Jury during that week, it was definitely impossible to obtain his services as a trial judge inasmuch as he is departing for Europe on June 2, 1937, and the question of getting one of the Federal Judges at Cleveland to sit in the case was very problematical.

Mr. Freed, with reference to the delay in his decision in this case, stated that shortly before Christmas of 1936 Federal Judge Hahn, now deceased, of Toledo, Ohio advised him that it would be impossible to convene a Grand Jury at Toledo, Ohio before March or April of 1937, and that subsequent to the above referred to conversation with Judge Hahn, as the Bureau has been previously advised, Judge Hahn died and ever since that time it has been impossible to obtain the services of a Federal Judge at Toledo, Ohio; and that the action of Federal Judge Killetts in convening the Grand Jury for May 17, 1937 was the best possible action he could get on the matter under the circumstances, thus indicating that even had he made his decision in this matter earlier it would have been impossible to present the case prior to the time now contemplated. Mr. Freed along this line also stated that it was necessary for him to consider this case from many angles and to hold discussions with special attorneys in the Attorney General's Office, and it was only after this long consideration that he evolved the theory of instituting prosecution charging the defendants with being accessories after the fact to the kidnaping of Edward George Bremer.

As instructed by Mr. E. A. Tamm of the Bureau in his telephone conversation with Special Agent E. J. Wynn, Special Agents A. P. Kitchin and E. J. Wynn will not in any way participate in the arrests of the defendants in this case, although they will be interviewed after their arrests by the U. S. Marshal if Mr. Freed contemplates proceeding on the theory of arresting the defendants prior to the presentation of the case to the Grand Jury. In further compliance with instructions received from Mr. E. A. Tamm, Special Agents A. P. Kitchin and E. J. Wynn will not be a party to suggesting to the U. S. Attorney or in any way outlining for him the names of witnesses to be subpoenaed before the Grand Jury, this being, as indicated by Mr. Tamm, a prosecutive action properly relegated to the province of the U. S. Attorney. As further instructed by Mr. E. A. Tamm, the work to be performed by Special Agents A. P. Kitchin and E. J. Wynn in connection with this case will be handled in such a manner as not to preclude them from appearing at Topeka, Kansas before the Grand Jury in connection with the murder of Special Agent W. W. Baker, and accordingly these agents will leave the Cleveland district to report to the Kansas City Field Division in ample time to permit agents to be present in Topeka, Kansas on May 24, 1937.

The results of the conferences had with Mr. E. B. Freed as above outlined were conveyed to Mr. E. A. Tamm of the Bureau in a long distance telephone conversation by Special Agent E. J. Wynn on May 13, 1937.

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS: E. C. Stacey, Tiffin, Ohio, informed Chief of Police J. B. White, New Smyrna, Florida, that he and associates once sold Joe Roscoe an interest in an Island in Great Lakes, and possibly has information of interest to the Government. DETAILS: Chief of Police J. B. White, New Smyrna, Florida, informed the Miami Field Division that Joe Roscoe was well known to a person in New Smyrna, who had had dealings with Roscoe, and if an Agent would call at New Smyrna he would be put in contact with the informant. On April 30, 1937, Agent called upon Mr. White, who stated that the person referred to in his letter is Mr. E. C. Stacey, an elderly man of some wealth, who lives during each winter in New Smyrna, but who left for his home at Tiffin, Ohio, on Saturday, April 24, 1937; that Mr. Stacey informed him that some years ago he and some other men owned an Island situate in one of the Great Lakes; that Joe Roscoe desired to purchase the Island, but did not desire that the title to the property stand in his name alone; that Mr. Stacey insisted that if an Agent of the Bureau of Investigation would call on him, he could give information concerning Roscoe, which would probably be of assistance to the Government.

RE: BREKID

Dear Sir:

Attached hereto is a page removed from a registration book obtained from Roy Kilam, proprietor of Kilam's Cottage, located on Lake Hamilton near Hot Springs, Arkansas.

It will be noted that the page contains several impressions, probably made by a pencil, and it is respectfully requested that the Bureau Laboratory make a technical examination of the same in an effort to bring out the indentations appearing thereon. The page which preceded the attached sheet in Mr. Kilam's registration book was apparently removed and destroyed by the owners of this resort.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. TAMM.

RE: BREKID

Time: 6:45 P.M.

At this time Special Agent Donegan called me from New York City and advised that Andrew Gurante, a witness in this case, has been identified by Miss Ida Wolk, a stenographer in the New York City Division, who was present when this man made a signed statement to Special Agent in Charge Hanson and Special Agent in Charge Vincent in New York some time ago. Mr. Donegan suggested that Mr. Vincent proceed from Charlotte to New York to aid in the identification, as Andrew Gurante has a brother named Albert, and the man in question has been posing as Albert Gurante. I advised Mr. Donegan that I would call you and get your authorization for this. I also advised Mr. Donegan that I thought the taking of this man into custody would be authorized, as the Criminal Division of the Department has been very anxious to get hold of him.

Time: 7:00 P.M.

At this time I called Special Agent Donegan in New York City and advised him that you had authorized the taking of this man into the office and the holding of him, pending the arrival of Special Agent in Charge Vincent to complete the identification. I further advised Mr. Donegan that I would call Mr. Vincent immediately regarding his proceeding to New York, and that I would send the original subpoena for this man to New York this evening by air mail, special delivery.

Time: 7:30 P.M.

At this time I called Special Agent in Charge Vincent in Charlotte and advised him of the above facts and the necessity of his proceeding to New York by air at once to complete the identification. There being no air service from Charlotte at the present time, Mr. Vincent advised that he would do so if he could catch a plane.

5/14/37.

Mr. Vincent advised that he was not present during the time the witness was making his statement to Mr. Hanson, but only when he was acknowledging it. However, he feels reasonably sure that he can identify the man. Upon his arrival in New York Mr. Vincent will have Mr. Donegan arrange for the man to be placed under bond. Mr. Vincent is to call from New York regarding the results of his observation of the man in case it may be deemed advisable to have Mr. Hanson proceed to New York from Los Angeles.

Time: 8:55 P.M.

At this time Agent in Charge Vincent called me from Charlotte and advised that pursuant to the above calls he is taking a plane from Spartanburg, S. C., at 1:45 A.M., May 14th, which will arrive at Newark, N. J., at 6:50 A.M. the same day. Mr. Vincent also advised that he would stop by Washington on his return trip from New York City, if it would be satisfactory. After consulting you, I advised it would be.

Respectfully,

K. R. McIntire.

MR. WHALEN stated that there was a rumor that IRENE GOETZ, who now uses the name of IRENE STANLEY, is intending to build a house in Wilmington, Illinois. He advised that IRENE operates a small dress shop in Wilmington and from his information has never made sufficient money from this business to enable her to build a house or furnish an apartment such as the one she presently maintains.

MR. WHALEN also advised that SIMON CINNOTTO, whose father was a witness in the Brekid case, has just purchased a house in Wilmington and the source of his sudden riches is unknown to informant.

Another individual at Wilmington, who is an uncle of IRENE GOETZ, named "TONY" BAGERO (phonetic spelling), has also shown signs of recently having acquired wealth. MR. WHALEN stated that BAGERO operates the only poolroom in town and would not be hard to locate.

MR. WHALEN advised that in the event he could secure further information regarding this matter and the possibility of there being some Brekid money still floating around in Wilmington, he will communicate with the writer."

AT WILMINGTON, ILLINOIS.

MRS. E. QUINN, Postmaster, was interviewed and advised that the rumors about Wilmington are that MRS. IRENE STANLEY, the wife of HENRY STANLEY, who was formerly IRENE GOETZ, nee IRENE DORSEY, is showing signs of recent prosperity from some questionable source, it being well known that her income from her small ladies' dress shop is not very large.

As to SIMON CINNOTTO'S apparent riches, MRS. QUINN advised that it is her information that as a result of his recent marriage, his father purchased a lot and placed the foundation of a house upon it as a wedding gift to his son; that MR. CINNOTTO, SR., has been a hardworking man and very thrifty; that there is no doubt that he has saved money and could make such a gift to his son from his own savings.

MRS. QUINN advised further that no Postal Savings accounts are maintained at the Post Office at Wilmington, and that if she obtained any information concerning the source of MRS. STANLEY'S income or information concerning excessive spending, she will immediately notify the Chicago Bureau office.

[REDACTED] respectively of the First National Bank, Wilmington, Illinois, advised that on April 3, 1937, IRENE STANLEY [REDACTED] stated that she came to his home on the evening of April 2nd and wanted him to accept [REDACTED] which he refused; that she stated she had been to Chicago for a couple of days and had just returned; that the next day she came to the bank and [REDACTED] He stated that he made a note of the numbers of the bills which she deposited, but could not locate this memorandum for Agent. He advised that the bills were turned over to a customer of said bank who came in to have a [REDACTED] bond cashed and that he would contact this customer to ascertain if he still has [REDACTED] and will get the serial numbers if possible. MRS. IRENE STANLEY maintains [REDACTED] She opened [REDACTED] She has from time to time made various small deposits and withdrawals, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] further advised that on May 5, 1937, MRS. STANLEY came to him and requested that he supervise the financial transactions in connection with the purchase of a lot by her and the subsequent building of a home.

[REDACTED] both advised that MR. SIMON CINNOTTO, SR., and his son have not shown any signs of unwarranted spending; that MR. CINNOTTO, SR., has always been a hard working man who has saved his money and could easily purchase a lot for his son without the same being subject to suspicion. They could not locate the list of Bremer ransom money which had been forwarded to them, but stated that they would watch money which comes into the bank. They have now been furnished with another list of the Bremer ransom money.

[REDACTED] stated that he has always suspected MR. CINNOTTO, SR., of having buried money on his [REDACTED] farm, as he traced a concrete block from CINNOTTO'S home which appeared on his farm and which when he [REDACTED] moved it would be moved back by some unknown person to the same spot; that he notified the Chicago Bureau office of this at one time and a search was made by an Agent for buried money; that subsequently he moved the block and it was replaced and he then called Sheriff BREKEN, who came to the farm with one of his deputies and the three of them made a search without results.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

Re: Harboring at Toledo.

I telephoned Special Agent Wynn at the Cleveland Division with reference to the above entitled matter, and told him that there is no reason for delay in telling the United States Attorney of the position of the Bureau in this matter. Consequently, I told Mr. Wynn to go to the USA and inform him it is impossible for the Bureau to take any action on the Commissioner's warrants which are to be issued as a result of the filing of the complaints; that the Bureau kept a group of specially selected men standing by in Cleveland and Toledo for six months awaiting affirmative action by him, and that these men have now been distributed all over the country working on important major cases, and consequently, we are not in a position to do anything in the nature of serving warrants or doing anything else to take these people into custody on the complaints. I told Mr. Wynn to inform the USA that these men are now distributed all over the United States, and we cannot re-assemble them; that if he wants to file complaints and have warrants issued and the men taken into custody, the arrests will have to be made by the United States Marshal.

I told Mr. Wynn that if they will draw up the complaints, we will file them, inasmuch as that will take only a small amount of time, but we don't have the time nor the men to go out and look the persons against whom complaints are filed and to bring them in.

Mr. Wynn said that from what he can gather as a result of his conferences with the USA in this case, he contemplates that the USA will ask us to outline to them the witnesses who should appear before the grand jury, etc. I told Mr. Wynn emphatically that we will not do that; that this is not our function; that they have had all of our reports before them for months, and if they aren't intelligent enough to read the reports and decide what witnesses should be called, they had better resign or something like that.

I told Mr. Wynn that under no circumstances should he or the other Agents out there express any opinion as to the advisability of subpoenaing or not subpoenaing witnesses, because if the thing miscarries now we don't want to have the responsibility of having had to select the witnesses.

Respectfully,

E. A. TAMM.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

Re: Harboring at Toledo.

Special Agent E. J. Wynn telephoned me from Cleveland and said that during the lunch hour, he and Agent Kitchen had talked with United States Attorney Freed and had acquainted him with the instructions which I outlined to him this morning. Mr. Freed said that Mr. Openlander, his first assistant at Toledo, was in charge of this matter, and that the Bureau's position in this matter should be communicated to him. Mr. Freed intimated that undoubtedly when Mr. Openlander learned of the Bureau's position in this matter, he would immediately get in touch with Brien McMahon of the Department by telephone. Mr. Freed indicated that this entire matter is being directed by Brien McMahon from Washington, and that he didn't know what the Department's attitude would be upon learning of the Bureau's attitude through Mr. Openlander.

Mr. Wynn said that after the complaints are filed and the Marshal has made the arrests, he was wondering what the Bureau thought about Kitchen and him talking to the subjects. I told Mr. Wynn that as long as they are there, and as long as it takes no more men than are already there to interview them, I could see no objection to this. Of course, I told Mr. Wynn that this does not mean he and Kitchen can go out with the Marshal and participate or assist in the arrest.

Mr. Wynn said that they won't be able to see Mr. Openlander before the first thing in the morning, at which time they would advise him of the Bureau's attitude in this matter.

Respectfully,

E. A. TAMM.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

Re: Harboring at Toledo.

Special Agent E. J. Wynn telephoned me from Toledo, Ohio, and said that he and Agent Kitchen this morning conferred with Assistant United States Attorney Openlander relative to the above entitled case.

Mr. Wynn said that Openlander has not as yet issued a call for the grand jury, and the earliest he can get a grand jury is for the 19th. He desires to present several routine cases to the grand jury to get them broken in, and then start to present the above entitled case. Mr. Openlander figures that it will take from a week to ten days to present this case.

With reference to the presence of Agents at Toledo for the presentation, Mr. Openlander asked how soon the Bureau can get Agents in there who are acquainted with the case. I told Mr. Wynn that we can't get them in; that they are tied up on other assignments at this time, and we can't say that they will be there at any time.

Openlander said that during the course of the presentation of the case to the grand jury, he wanted both Kitchen and Wynn there to aid with the grand jury. Mr. Wynn in this connection said he pointed out to Mr. Openlander that he and Kitchen have to be at Topeka, Kansas, on the 24th of this month for the grand jury in connection with the Baker Case. Openlander said that if this is so, he would probably go so far as to call the USA at Topeka and determine whether either or both Wynn and Kitchen are needed for this grand jury.

Mr. Wynn said that Openlander's reactions are not so favorable as regards the inability of the Bureau to be able to bring Agents in there for the purpose of locating, arresting and interviewing the subjects. Mr. Wynn said that in this connection, he pointed out to Mr. Openlander that Agents for this purpose were kept around in that vicinity for six months awaiting some action on the part of the office of the USA, but Openlander indicated that the office of the USA feels that they are not at fault in the matter, stating something about not getting the reports soon enough. In this connection, the last report was submitted to them sometime in October of last year.

With reference to the statute of limitations, Openlander says that the first count of the indictment charges nine defendants with being accessories after the fact of the Bremer kidnaping; the second count charges the same defendants with conspiracy; and the third count of the indictment charges them with conspiracy to harbor. Openlander points out that certain of the allegations which were committed early in May have already been outlawed by the statute of limitations, and he feels that probably his entire first count may not stand up. He says that after the presentation of this matter to the grand jury, there will definitely be no trial until Fall of this year.

Mr. Openlander said that he was going to call Brien McMahon of the Department and suggest to Mr. McMahon that he hold a conference with the Director for the purpose of coming to some further agreement on the matter. Kitchen and Wynn are going to see Openlander again this afternoon.

Mr. Wynn will advise me as to the results of the conference this afternoon.

Dear Sir:

While traveling on the Gulf Coast Limited of the Atlantic Coast Line on May 11, 1937, I engaged in conversation with Tom Robinson (colored), a waiter in the dining car, during which he told me that he had worked as a bell boy in the Miami Hotel, managed by Joe Adams, during the time that Karpis and others of his gang had stayed there. He indicated that he was glad to be away from Miami because although the bell boys had been coached as to how to answer anticipated questions at the pending trial of Joe Adams he thought there was plenty of chance for them to get into trouble.

He further stated that in his presence, Joe Adams had told the Captain of the Bell Boys that he intended to fire him, whereupon the Bell Captain, a colored man, had replied that he was going to keep his job at least until the trial was over, the inference clearly being that it was highly desirable for Adams to stay on good terms with the Bell Captain because the latter was in possession of damaging information concerning Adams.

Tom Robinson was unaware of my identity and I did not disclose it to him. The Conductor of the train furnished me his name and stated that he could be reached through the Atlantic Coast Line Dining Car Department at Jacksonville, Florida. However, the season for that train has ended and Robinson indicated to me that he had already made arrangements whereby he would work as a waiter on a dining car of the Soo Line out of St. Paul, Minnesota.

I am not acquainted with the case involving the trial of Joe Adams but the above information is submitted for whatever value it may have.

MEMORANDUM FOR SPECIAL AGENT IN CHARGE CHAMPMAN FLETCHER:

Re: Brekid

Reference is made to Bureau letter, dated May 6, 1937, in which it was requested that I review my report, dated at Chicago, Illinois, February 6, 1936, and the report of Special Agent in Charge J. H. Hanson, dated at Jacksonville, Florida, February 20, 1935, in the above entitled case, and thereafter submit a memorandum incorporating any further admissions that Joe Adams might have made at St. Paul, Minnesota during the month of January, 1936.

Please be advised that I reviewed these reports at Hot Springs, Arkansas on May 12, 1937, and wish to submit the following to indicate the circumstances under which I talked to Joe Adams at St. Paul, Minnesota, at the above indicated time. I recall that Special Agent D. P. Sullivan and I interviewed Dolores Delaney at the Ramsey County Jail at St. Paul, for a period of approximately two weeks, during which time she went into great detail concerning her experience and association with Joe Adams and Duke Randall at Miami, Florida. During the course of the interview with Miss Delaney, she was shown the original of the letter appearing on page 49 of my report, dated February 6, 1936, which letter was signed, "Mr. Wagner". The Delaney woman admitted writing this letter at the dictation of Alvin Karpis, and it was her belief at that time that Karpis, himself, deposited this letter in the mail. She further informed Agent Sullivan and myself that either two or three days later, Alvin Karpis received a cablegram from Joe Adams, which she saw, and that to her recollection it stated that Adams had no idea where Willie Harrison could be located. Considerable discussion was had with the Delaney woman concerning the identity of "that party" referred to in the said letter, but she declared that she did not know who this person might have been.

Believing that this unknown party was possibly Cash^a Mc Donald, who was on trial in St. Paul at that time, I thereafter exhibited this letter to Joe Adams in the office of the United States Attorney at St. Paul, in an effort to have him reveal for the Bureau the identity of this unknown party. I do not recall at this time what agents, other than Special Agent in Charge J. H. Hanson, were present in the room at the time I showed this letter to Mr. Adams, but distinctly recall that Mr. George Sullivan, the United States Attorney, was likewise there. To the best of my recollection this matter was discussed with Joe Adams a day or two previous to the time he took the witness stand for the Government. At this time I had not as yet read the statement of Joe Adams taken at Miami, Florida, and therefore did not know what Mr. Adams had previously stated to the agents who interviewed him at the time of his apprehension.

COPIES DESTROYED

I recall that Joe Adams, after reading the aforementioned letter written by Miss Delaney, emphatically denied that he had ever received such a letter, or that he had ever seen it previously. I insisted that he must have received the same, indicating to him that it was definitely known that the letter was mailed, and that he had acknowledged it. He continued to deny any knowledge whatever about the letter, but stated that if he had received the letter in question he would have thought that "that party" mentioned therein, would have had reference to Kate Barker. Mr. Adams also denied at this time that he ever transmitted a cable-gram to Karpis under the name of Wagner.

It was either on this occasion or later that day that Special Agent in Charge Hanson and I discussed with Joe Adams in the office of the United States Attorney, certain phases of the testimony which he was expected to provide. It is my distinct recollection that Mr. L. E. Gray, who formerly worked at the El Comodoro Hotel, was likewise present during this conference, and that considerable discussion was had relative to what members of the Barker-Karpis gang occupied certain rooms at such times when they resided at the El Comodoro Hotel. It appeared that the records of this hotel were in the custody of the United States Attorney, and ~~that~~ the recollection of Joe Adams as to what rooms these people occupied, did not coincide. The details of this particular discussion cannot now be recalled by me.

Sometime after the above conference in the office of the United States Attorney, Special Agent in Charge J. H. Hanson and I engaged in a general conversation with Joe Adams, at which time he informed that he had known Willie Harrison since 1930 or 1931; that he first met him when Harrison was selling or cashing tickets at the Miami Beach Kennel Club. He also stated that he met Harry Sawyer as "Sea Lion" during the first part of September, 1934; that Willie Harrison introduced him to Sawyer, and that it was his understanding that Sawyer was from St. Paul, Minnesota. I recall that Adams further stated that Harry Sawyer and Willie Harrison were in frequent contact with Cash McDonald, whom he likewise met through Harrison around this period; that these three men frequently talked to him about opening a gambling place in Miami or Havana, Cuba, and in this connection asked him whether he knew of any good sites in Miami for such a place. I recall that Mr. Adams stated that one afternoon he drove Harry Sawyer, Cash McDonald, and Willie Harrison in his car around Miami, Florida, and showed them several places that he thought might be good spots for a gambling place. I recall that Joe Adams particularly stated that he had these three men look over an unfinished structure somewhere in Broward County, Florida.

I desire to state that Special Agent D. P. Sullivan was in and out of the United States Attorney's office during this time, and that he recently informed me that he was present at the time Joe Adams talked about driving Sawyer et al around Miami, Florida, in an effort to locate a gambling site.

It is recalled that Joe Adams further related at this time that Cash McDonald came to his office at the El Comodoro Hotel during the latter part of December, 1934, and asked where he could get in touch with Blackburn, whom he had previously identified as Fred Barker. He stated that McDonald appeared very anxious to see Blackburn. I recall that Mr. Adams stated that he transmitted a telegram to Blackburn at Oklawaha, Florida, and signed it "Cash", advising that he, Cash McDonald, wanted to see him the following Sunday. Mr. Adams could not recall whether he or one of the hotel employees delivered the telegram to the Western Union messenger boy. I recall that Mr. Adams admitted at this time that he suggested to Blackburn that he rent Carson Bradford's home on Lake Weir for him and his mother. I also recall that Adams admitted that he visited the Bradford home during the time Fred Barker and his mother resided there, but that he did not find them at home. I also recall that considerable discussion was had with Joe Adams as to why he signed the above mentioned telegram in the name of "Cash", instead of his own name, and that he could not satisfactorily explain this, although I cannot recall at this time just what explanation he furnished.

I further recall that Joe Adams related that on or about Christmas Day in 1934, Cash McDonald again came to his office at the El Comodoro Hotel, and asked him where he could get in touch with Wagner, referring to Alvin Karpis. He stated that he gave McDonald either Karpis' telephone number or his address in Miami, and also volunteered to call him up for McDonald, but that McDonald told him that that would not be necessary as he was going right up there. I recall that Adams definitely denied that he telephoned Karpis on this occasion. I recall that he also stated at this time that he on one occasion saw Alvin Karpis and Cash McDonald talking together in the lobby of the El Comodoro Hotel around Christmas, 1934.

I wish to emphasize the fact that the foregoing information was supplied by Joe Adams of his own volition, and that he was not subjected to any interrogation at that time; that he talked freely and with restraint, and that the entire discussion had with him was casual, informal, and in a friendly manner. One might term it a "bull session". Both Special Agent D. P. Sullivan, who was in and out of the room during this time, and I can testify that Joe Adams spoke freely and casually on this occasion.

It is again pointed out that until this time, I had not as yet reviewed the statement of Joe Adams which is contained in the report of Mr. Hanson, and therefore did not know on the occasion of the above discussion with Joe Adams, whether he had previously furnished substantially the same information to other agents in the form of a signed statement.

I recall that upon my return to Chicago, Illinois in the early part of February, 1936, I dictated the report, dated February 6, 1936. In preparing my notes prior to the actual dictation of this report, I referred to the statement of Joe Adams, in order to refresh my recollection as to what Adams had freely discussed with me and others a week or two previous. I am certain that everything that Adams discussed with me and others in connection with this case, was reported, as at that time I realized the value of his admissions, and knew that the same could be used against him in court at a later date.

I am unable to expand in any great measure on the matter contained in my report of February 6, 1936, and the information set out in this memorandum is my entire recollection of the interviews had with Joe Adams at St. Paul, Minnesota during the trial of Cash McDonald et al. I might say again that no effort was made to interrogate Mr. Adams at St. Paul, as he was at that time a Government witness, and that all contacts with him were of a very friendly nature.

Respectfully submitted,

John L. Madala

BREKID

Dear Sir:

W. 20
The advice of the Bureau is desired as to the proper manner of dividing the files in the above two cases between the Pittsburgh and Huntington Field Division offices. The Pittsburgh files on these cases contain, in many instances, only one copy of Bureau instructions, along with various enclosures which have been sent out by the Bureau from time to time.

The Bureau's suggestions in this matter will be sincerely appreciated.

Very truly yours,

R. J. WINTERKINER

Dear Sir:

Reference is made to your letter of May 15, 1937, in the Mattson and Bremer Kidnaping Cases, requesting information as to the proper manner of dividing files.

The Bureau believes that it will only be necessary in the Mattson case to forward to the Huntington field division serials which contain leads currently pending in the Huntington, West Virginia territory. The Bureau is forwarding to the Huntington division copies of initial reports, charts, and form letters with which to start a basic file.

With reference to the procedure to follow in connection with the Bremer file, it will be only necessary for you to furnish the Huntington field division with serials pertaining to the investigation which may be pending in that division at the present time.

Very truly yours,

John Edgar Hoover,
Director.

Re: BREKID

Dear Sir:

In confirmation of telephonic information conveyed to Mr. McIntire of the Bureau by Assistant Special Agent in Charge T. J. Donegan of this office on May 15, 1937, there are being forwarded herewith the original and one copy of a memorandum prepared by Special Agent in Charge J. W. Vincent concerning the arrest of Albert Guarente by Deputy U. S. Marshal Quinn of the Eastern District of New York on May 14, 1937, at which time Deputy Marshal Quinn was accompanied by Special Agent in Charge J. W. Vincent and Special Agents W. J. McNulty and H. C. Leslie.

This information is being forwarded to the Bureau inasmuch as it will be noted that Albert Guarente used abusive language apparently intended by him to cause the Agents to in some way use physical force in taking him into custody. In this connection your attention is especially directed to the first four full sentences appearing on page 2 of the memorandum.

This memorandum is self-explanatory and is being forwarded to the Bureau for attention and as a matter of record in case GUARENTE attempts to discredit actions of the Agents of the Bureau at a later date.

MEMORANDUM FOR FILE

RE: BREKID

About 4:30 p.m., May 14, 1937 the writer and Special Agents H. C. Leslie, and W. J. McNulty, accompanied by Deputy U.S. Marshal Quinn, Eastern District of New York, proceeded to the residence of ALBERT or ANDREW GUARENTE, 2808 35th Street, Astoria, Long Island, for the purpose of determining whether he could be identified by the writer as the individual who came to the New York office, of this Bureau on August 22, 1935 to furnish information as set out in his unsigned statement in this file. The Deputy Marshal had in his possession a warrant issued by U.S. Commissioner EPSTEIN, Brooklyn, N.Y., May 14, 1937, for the arrest of GUARENTE as a material witness in this case.

The writer and Agent McNulty went into see GUARENTE, at which time he was alone in his apartment. It was very dark in his apartment for that time of the afternoon and although it was impossible to get a good view of him at that particular moment the writer was practically certain that he was the individual.

Shortly afterwards Agent Leslie and Mr. Quinn also came in and while the writer was questioning GUARENTE concerning whether or not he was the individual who had been in the New York office as above mentioned he stood up on the floor and invited the four of us to leave his apartment. He told us that he had something important to do and started toward his living room to get dressed. He was asked to remain in the room and about that time his wife came in. He was then advised by the Marshal that a warrant was held for his arrest and it would be necessary to accompany the Marshal and agents.

GUARENTE then requested that he be allowed to make a telephone call to a friend and ask the friend to come over. He made this call. He then stalled around and pretended to be ill, refused to get dressed, inasmuch as he had on only bedroom slippers, trousers and a shirt, during which time he was constantly urged by agents and Mr. Quinn to get dressed and accompany the party. During this procedure he addressed abusive language to the writer and stated that he was sorry that the writer did not come out to his apartment alone. While he was addressing this language to the writer, the writer made the following statement to GUARENTE: "You are mistaken if you think you will cause me to strike you over the head by making remarks of that nature to me." Immediately after this remark was made GUARENTE spoke to his wife in a loud voice, asking whether she heard that remark. He repeated the remark and when he repeated it he quoted the writer as follows: "He is going to hit me over the head." The wife immediately took up his remark and repeated his statement identically.

When he was directing this language at the writer the writer was at least ten feet from him, standing with both hands in his pockets making no motions or movements toward him. No threatening remarks were made by either agents or Marshal Quinn toward GUARENTE. No abusive language was used to him and a great deal of patience was exercised on the part of agents and the Marshal in taking GUARENTE along so as to prevent any disturbance or scene in his apartment. It appeared that it was GUARENTE'S intention to endeavor to have the agents and the Marshal attempt to take him bodily from his apartment. However, every effort was made to prevent such and when he did accompany the agents and the Marshal he walked along voluntarily and no one put a hand on him.

GUARENTE when questioned as to whether he had ever seen the writer previously stated that he was positive he had but he could not recall the occasion. He believed that he had met the writer socially. The writer has no recollection of such meeting other than at the New York office.

GUARENTE stated that the arrest being false he would make all of the parties in his apartment pay for the incident and was otherwise abusive in his language. During this time he attempted to call the Police Department, according to his statement, whereupon the telephone was seized and he was prevented from doing this.

Shortly thereafter Mr. SOL BLOOM, an attorney at 2201 31st Street, Long Island City, New York, telephone Astoria 8-5497, appeared at the apartment, stating that he was an attorney but that he had appeared as a life-long friend of GUARENTE whom he knew as ALBERT GUARENTE. He claimed to know ANDREW GUARENTE also and stated that there was practically no resemblance whatsoever between these two men. He described ANDREW as a much larger, taller individual, who could not be mistaken for his brother ALBERT. Mr. Bloom's conduct was that of a gentleman. He advised GUARENTE to accompany agents and the Marshal and stated that if a warrant had been issued for him the only thing he could do was to go along and have it thrashed out in court.

Subsequent thereto GUARENTE finally dressed and accompanied agents and the Marshal peaceably to the New York office en route to the U.S. House of Detention in Manhattan.

GUARENTE was brought to the New York office and was questioned by the writer, Agents McNulty and Leslie and Assistant S.A.C. Donegan for approximately two hours. He steadfastly refused to confirm the statement which he had made previously herein. He was evasive and refused to furnish anything concrete about his past or himself personally.

Inquiries were made of the U.S. Marshal as to whether or not he could arraign GUARENTE on that night. He replied due to the late hour that he would place GUARENTE in the House of Detention and have him arraigned the following morning.

During the entire time at the New York office, although GUARENTE was uncooperative, he was not abusive and his attitude had changed considerably from the time he was first questioned at his apartment.

While en route from the Federal Building to the U.S. Detention Home a stop was made at one of the lunch wagons on West Street, where he was offered an opportunity to have whatever he wanted.

The above is being made a matter of record as it is possible that this individual might attempt to carry out some of his numerous threats mentioned above herein directed against the agents for having him arrested.

J. W. VINCENT
Special Agent in Charge.
